Reformation Lutheran Church

June 2016

Welcome!

Reformation is a Reconciling in Christ Congregation. We welcome everyone to join with us in a journey of faith. We are committed to providing worship, programs, ministries and pastoral care to all, regardless of age, ability, gender identity, sexual orientation, marital status, religious background, color, economic status, or national origin. Everyone is welcome in this place, where the love of God is the foundation of all that we say and do.

There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male or female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus—Galatians 3:28

SUNDAY SCHEDULE

9:00am - Informal Worship

9:45am - Coffee/Fellowship

10:00am - Sunday School

11:00am - Classic Worship

THE PASTOR'S PERSPECTIVE:

Summer time! The time of vacation travels, or just getting out of town. Time to checkout our national parks, forests, and beaches or visit relatives for family reunions. That means lists for packing, trying not to forget anything. Sunscreen? Check. Bathing suit? Check. Underwear? Check. Tent? Check. Did you turn off the lights? Check. Did you remember to fill the cat's food and water, and clean her litter? Check. Did you remember the church? Che... what? Ah... yes, the church. It's so easy to forget during the summer.

In this Pastor's Perspective I would like to remind us all NOT to forget church during this summer and our vacations. I believe the Sabbath is important. Even on vacation, I believe it is important to spend our Sunday in a community of faith. I know, I've heard it and have probably said it, in my civilian life, "I can worship God anywhere; beach, forest, national park..." Which is true... to a point, but there is something about being in community that can't be found just anywhere. I believe that's why Jesus commanded his disciples to go create communities, NOT to seek isolation in wilderness or caves. Faith communities, when functioning properly, add to our experience of wholeness, even when we are on vacation.

Another reason – and this is always the hardest for me – don't forget about our faith community at home. Summer is that notorious time of the year when church offerings take a nosedive. When we are roaming this great nation with our summer activities, it's easy to forget about our home congregation. I would like to make a humble suggestion. If you are not signed up for electronic giving, think about it. Or, if you still use the envelope method, before you go on vacation, use your envelope, and either place it in the mail, or drop it by the church on you way out of town. There is a mail slot in our big red office door, and you can slide it in there anytime of the day.

Summer is a fun time of the year; Kathy and I love it too. I just wanted to send a friendly reminder that church doesn't have to be absent from it. There are neat churches to explore across this country and abroad. Make them a part of your travels. You'll be enriched by the experience. And please, let us not forget about Reformation, our own faith community, and the support we need to carry forth with the wonderful ministries we've all been called to.

Have a great summer!

Shalom,
Pastor Tim

WHAT'S YOUR FAVORITE ADAGE? SUNDAY SCHOOL JUNE—SEPTEMBER 11

Join us for Sunday School this month as we discuss Adages. In June, beginning about 10:10 am we will introduce adages as preparation for the Summer Sunday School panel to begin July—September 11.

An adage is a short, pointed and memorable saying based on facts, and is considered a veritable truth by the majority of people. Famous adages become popular due to their usage over a long period of time. In fact, an adage expresses a general fact or truth about life. As it becomes popular, it is then accepted as a universal truth. For instance, "God helps those who help themselves" is now considered a universal truth because of its usage throughout the human history. Often repeated sayings and quotes become adages that pass on to many generations. However, some adages are metaphoric, having hidden meanings, and embody common observations. Sometimes, proverbs are also referred as adages, but there is a slight difference.(literarydevices.net).

King Solomon is reported to have composed 3,000 of them. Daily we see them in instagram posts, coffee cups, t-shirts, bumper stickers, etc.

The June sessions will help us get ready for the July—September 11 sessions which are back by popular demand. Our panel Sunday School class is returning this summer as we share who we are including a favorite adage.. The Adages sessions in June are a lead-in for the Panel discussions. Anyone interested in being on a panel, contact Sarah Trani atstrani@sc.rr.com or the church office (252-1507)

Dear Reformation Lutheran Church,

On behalf of Family Shelter's Board of Directors, volunteers, staff, and, most importantly, the families we serve, we want to express our sincere appreciation for helping us provide living expenses for the families that stay in our shelter.

In addition to living expenses, we offer Family and Youth enrichment programs to help strengthen our families while they live with us and increase the chances of them achieving and maintaining independent living when they leave our program. Again, thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Cindy Atkinson, Financial Administrator

THE PASTOR'S LAMENT:

I was honored to have been asked by SC Equality, the Harriet Hancock Center, and Youth Outloud to testify at the SC Senate Hearings on Bill S1203, the infamous Bathroom Bill. It was a bill that mirrored the disastrous NC bill that called for Transgender individuals to use bathrooms that match the gender on their birth certificate, not the gender they identify with. I sat there and listened to people who cloaked themselves with the religious moniker of Christianity as they attacked the trans community with venomous statements and accusations. They would turn from the mic and look towards the audience as they spoke of predators, pedophiles, deviants, and abominations, it didn't sound like the voice of Jesus. I do believe all have a right to their opinions, but when it becomes venomous and hateful, I don't know where that comes from, it doesn't sound like the voice I hear from the gospels.

In my statement I reminded them that some of the most despicable predators they referred to come from the political and pastoral group, but I would not lump all politicians and pastors in with them, nor would I refuse all pastors and politicians to their basic public rights to use public facilities.

There is an obvious attempt to use religion to organize everyone's public life to certain religious conceived parameters, and it has created this fear factor of LGBTQ community with misinformation. I'm proud to be the pastor of a congregation where we are willing to discuss the issues that so many people see as uncomfortable grey areas with no black or white discernment. Life is a diversity of issues and color, and it isn't black or white, and discussions in those very grey areas are healthy for the relationships that were defined as well as the relationships created. I informed them that Reformation has held Youth Outloud events, and they have been wonderful. At those events we have children that represent the spectrum of the LGBTQ community, as well as straight teens, and the bathrooms have never been an issue. The youth have been very respectful of each other – except when it comes to the last piece of pizza – so maybe we can learn from them.

I'm also was at the hearings because as a Pastor, I believe I'm called to speak out on behalf of those perceived as the lowest in society. I'm called to comfort the afflicted and afflict the comfortable. The Gospel can push us to hard truths, which are contrary to society at large. Society teaches us to fear the "other" yet Jesus teaches us love and welcome for the other. I implored them to see Jesus in the face of the person they see as a threat, real or perceived, and to know that those individuals are children of God, loved, named, cared for and as deserving of safety they and their children have. If someone or some group is marginalized, that's where I see Jesus, and I believe we as Christians must go and stand with them. With certain religious and political organizations taking aim on trans individuals, I truly believe Jesus' teachings call all of us to stand with them. I lament the anger some relate to the name of Christ.

Peace,

Pastor Tim

GOD'S WORK. OUR HANDS

On Sunday, Sept. 11, congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America will again join together for "God's work. Our hands" Sunday. Whether we clean parks and roadways, visit the elderly and homebound or bake cookies, this dedicated day of service gives us the opportunity to share God's love with all people. Watch for details about how you can be involved in the ways we will show and share the love of God.

A WEBCAST WITH PRESIDING BISHOP, ELIZABETH EATON

Do the people in our pews reflect the people in our neighborhoods? How do we invite and welcome our neighbors? Watch the replay broadcast with Bishop Eaton exploring what it means to be a welcoming congregation. Invite a group and explore these questions together.
